THE FINAL NEGOTIATIONS.

Ministers at Peking Will Clear the Way of Minor Matters.

Washington, Jan. 19.—So far as our state department can influence the negotiations now about to begin at Peking it will seek to clear the way of all minor matters and of points upon which there is no disagreement whatever among the allies, before undertaking the solution of the more difficult problems involved in the settlement of the questions of indemnities, guarantees and commercial treaties. It is fully expected that the Chinese representatives will offer opposition to almost every point, in order to secure more favorable terms, such as an undertaking to dismantle, instead of destroy, the Chinese forts between Taku and Peking; some abatement of the restrictions upon the importation of arms, and a considerable limitation upon the size of the legation guards to be maintained in Peking.

It is said at the state department that Mr. Rockhill has signed an intention to return to the United States in a short time. He has not retired, but returns voluntarily.

China Wants Easier Terms.

London, Jan. 19.—"Although the United States government and the American papers accuse Mr. Conger of severity toward the Chinese," says the Peking correspondent of the Morning Post, "the Americans had regarded him as inclined to leniency."

"The Chinese commissioners handed to the foreign envoys with the signed protocols a dispatch from Emperor Kwang Hsu, asking a foreign occupation instead of destruction of the Taku forts. The emperor's dispatch asked also of the fixing of a definite period for the prohibition of the importation of arms, and requested that the punitive expeditions be stopped, asked for particularities as to the amount of land to be retained for the legations, the number of legation guards, the probable cost of the military operations and the date when the foreigners propose to restore the public offices and records in Peking to the Chinese. The emperor does not mention the demand of the powers for the punishment of the principal offenders."

First Sitting of Peace Conference.

Berlin, Jan. 19.—An official of the German foreign office informed a correspondent of the press today that the first sitting of the peace conference in Peking would be appointed immediately after the different foreign envoys had convinced themselves that their copies of the joint note had been properly signed and sealed by the Chinese plenipotentiaries.

A DESPERADO CAUGHT.

Officers Located Marvin Kuhn, the Indiana
Outlaw

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 19.—Marvin Kuhn, the desperado who has terrorized Northern Indiana for weeks and defied the officers of two states, was captured last night at Greenhill and is now in Logansport jail. Kuhn and his brother, who was released from the Columbus prison shortly after Marvin escaped, were taken after a desperate fight. Before the outlaw was overpowered he shot two men and was himself shot in the head, but not seriously.

Kuhn and his brother and a confederate stole a team at Plymouth Sunday night and started south. Ex-Sheriff Marshall and Marshal Cheney traced them to La Fayette last evening and by telephoning neighboring towns located them at Greenhill, near Otterbein. At Otterbein the posse surrounded the house and rushed in at midnight. Marvin was awake and seized a revolver at his bedside. Before he could fire, Elmer Switzer shot him in the face and the posse closed in. One man jumped from the second-story window and escaped, but the brothers were overpowered after a struggle, in which a number of shots were exchanged. Wounded as he was, Marvin partially shook off the attacking party and shot H. V. Volt in the back and Lewis Hawkins in the arm. Neither was fatally injured.

First at Phoenix.

Phoenix, B. C., Jan. 19.—Fire tonight caused a loss of $30,000. It started in McBean & Co.'s dry goods store, spread to the Imperial hotel and thence to the buildings of the Phoenix News Company. Giant powder was used to blow up buildings in the path of the flames. McBean & Co. lost on their stock $12,000. The loss on the building was $3,000; Imperial hotel loss, $10,000; Phoenix News Company, $2,000; T. A. Hicks, dry goods store, $1,800. There was partial insurance on some of the buildings and stock.

Would Develop Danish Islands.

Copenhagen, Jan. 19.—The leaders of the syndicate of merchants who are petitioning the government to make the investment of Danish capital profitable in the Danish West Indies, declare they have no intention of agitating against the sale of the islands to the United States. Their idea is to develop the islands in the event of their not being sold.

Master of the Geyser.

Beaumont, Texas, Jan. 19.—The owners of the Lucas oil geyser, which has been shooting off 50 feet high since last Thursday, have succeeded in controlling the well. A valve was placed on the mouth of the well today, and Captain Lucas thinks he is now master of the geyser. It is estimated that 150,000 barrels of oil have already flowed from the well. Prospectors and spectators continue to arrive.

WILL BE ON HAND

Farquhar's Squadron Ready to Move on Venezuela.

IF THE TROUBLE IS NOT SETTLED

Minister Loomis's Dispatches Tempered With—
The Scorpion Will Remain at La Guayra.
Where Her Presence is Necessary.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Nothing has been heard over night from Minister Loomis regarding the situation in Venezuela. Navy department officials deny that any instructions have been given to the North Atlantic squadron to move over from Florida to Venezuela. The ships, however, are in perfect cruising trim, and could sail within a few hours after the receipt of orders, though it is not believed here that there will be any necessity for their movement toward Venezuela.

The orders to the Scorpion to proceed to Guaymas from La Guayra have been countermanded, and she will remain at La Guayra, where her presence is regarded as necessary. By direction of the state department, Minister Loomis has protested to the Venezuelan government against the exercise of censorship over any of his official communications, and it is understood that the protests have been effective.

It cannot be gathered that any very late advices have caused the change in the department's plans relative to the movements of the Scorpion. In fact, it is said that nothing has been received to show any marked change in the status in Venezuela since yesterday, when Minister Loomis spoke of the suppression of a rebellion among the troops in Caracas, the inception of which was unknown to the department of state. The fact that such a movement could gain headway in Castro's own capital, however, is very significant, and this rebellion among the troops may have led to the decision to retain the Scorpion at La Guayra, the nearest port to Caracas.

The naval authorities were consulted during the day as to the feasibility of re-enforcing the American naval force now in Venezuela, but while some such thing is in prospect, it cannot be learned that any positive orders have yet gone out. The Hartford is not within reach of the cable, being on a cruise from Port of Spain for Barbados, at which place she is due in about two days. She may be turned back from that port, unless the situation improves. The Lancaster sailed from Port of Spain for the Cape Verde islands, so she is entirely beyond reach.

There is no disposition on the part of the authorities here to go to any unusual length in dealing with this situation, as they say frankly that it is not a part of their purpose to browbeat or coerce the Venezuelans by a formal naval demonstration, unless such a course is forced on them, which is not believed to be at all likely. But it is quite certain that Admiral Farquhar will shape the movements of the North Atlantic squadron so as to keep in close touch with the navy department and he will not be far away from a cable and for many days at a time after he leaves Florida.

Mr. Loomis's protest against any censorship of his official mail on the part of the Venezuelan government was not idly lodged, and he acted by the department's direction only upon a well grounded suspicion that his cables were being tampered with or unreasonably delayed.

WATCHING AN EMBEZZLER.

The Confidential Clerk of a New York Wholesale
House Sals for Europe.

London, Jan. 21.—The alleged forger for whose extradition the United States authorities are asking is said to be Edmund Hertz, alias Emden, of New York city. He is supposed to be on board the steamer Corinthian, which left Halifax, Sunday, Jan. 7, for Queenstown and Liverpool. The police of those cities are watching for him.

Acting under instructions from Chief of Detectives George F. Titts, the Scotland Yard officials were cabled yesterday to arrest at Queenstown or Liverpool as he steps off an incoming steamer, the alleged defaulting confidential clerk of a large wholesale house on Walker street, New York city, who is said to have embezzled $50,000 of the firm's funds at the time of his flight, and to have embezzled nearly $300,000 before he was even suspected.

Want Back Pay.

Barre, Vt., Jan. 21.—Many granite cutters and tool sharpeners are taking action toward pushing their claims of back pay for work done in the service of the government of the United States nearly 30 years ago. The claims arise out of the building of the Boston and New York postoffice, the work on Dix, Hurricane and Fox islands, and work in navy yards. The claimants worked 10 hours a day instead of eight, and they are now trying to collect pay for the extra two hours a day. The navy yard men got their pay two years ago.

The Peace Protocol.

Washington, Jan. 21.—A message was received today from Minister Conger, at Peking, stating that the Chinese plenipotentiaries had signed and delivered the protocol. This removes the last doubt that had arisen as to the sealing of the government agreement, for it would not have been accepted by the Spanish minister, who is dean of the corps, unless it bore all the seals and signatures necessary to give it full force.

DIAMOND SMUGGLER CAUGHT

Had Them Sluggishly Hidden in the Pockets of a
Belt He Wore Around His Waist.

New York, Jan. 21.—United States Marshal Alcott, of the Perry district, has formally seized in this city $17,000 worth of diamonds, which were brought into this country by Antonio Ansenias without paying duty on them. The goods were found on Ansenias's person by United States customs officials as Ansenias was leaving a steamer of the Hamburg-American line at Hoboken.

Ansenias was not arrested, but the diamonds will be held pending a decision of the Treasury department as to whether he is guilty of smuggling. His defense is that he is a Cuban merchant, and that he is merely passing through this country on his way to Cuba. The diamonds were concealed in the pockets of a large belt which Ansenias had around his body, and were accidentally discovered by a customs inspector who happened to place his hand on Ansenias's back as the latter was leaning over a trunk. There are 126 separate articles, of an appraised valuation of $11,000, which with 60 per cent duty added would make them worth $17,000.

THE IRRIGATION MOVEMENT.

It Receives Strong Support From Secretary
Hitchcock.

Washington, Jan. 21.—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock was to have been heard today by the house committee on public lands on the subject of irrigation, which is attracting attention in many Western states, but being unable to come to the capitol, he submitted a statement. This strongly supports the policy of irrigation, and says that a vast acreage capable of supporting 50,000,000 people should not be left a desert. Mr. Hitchcock points out the remarkable results experienced in the valley of the Nile, practically redeeming Egypt from bankruptcy. Professor Newell, of the geological survey; Professor Pinchot, of the agricultural department, and Representative Newlands, of Nevada, who started the movement by a bill for irrigation stores along the Humboldt river in Nevada, also strongly supported the plan. The hearings today were on the Newlands bill, but this has brought up the whole subject as applicable to Western states, and particularly California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, South and North Dakota.

DARING HOLD-UP.

Two Men Tried to Rob a Fifth Avenue, New York, Restaurant.

New York, Jan. 21.—Two robbers, armed with 32-caliber Colt's revolvers, entered Maillard's restaurant and confectionery store, near the Fifth Avenue hotel, just as the place was being closed at midnight, and ordered the cashier to throw up his hands. In the place were a half dozen waiters, and the very boldness of the robbers attracted attention. The cashier had several hundred dollars of the day's receipts on the desk before him, and it is supposed that he did not move quickly enough to satisfy the robbers, for one of the men discharged his revolver. The bullet crashed into the wall back of the cashier, who caught up the cash and dodged underneath the counter. The waiters concealed themselves underneath tables. The shot attracted a Broadway crowd, and the police were notified. Brandishing their weapons the robbers dashed from Maillard's, the crowd falling back and giving them all the room they wanted. One turned into Twenty-fourth street and succeeded in making his escape. The other dashed across the pavement of Fifth avenue to Madison square, and was captured by a policeman. He said he was Edward Burgess, a steam-fitter.

Conference on Canal Treaty.

London, Jan. 21.—United States Ambassador Choate and the secretary of state for foreign affairs, the Marquis of Lansdowne, had a second conference today on the amended Hay-Pauncefote treaty. An outline of the action Great Britain intends to pursue was not developed, and no definite decision is likely to be reached by Great Britain for several days.

General A. J. McKay Dead.

New York, Jan. 21.—General Andrew Jackson McKay, a distinguished veteran of the civil war, died in this city today. He was quartermaster-general on the staff of General George W. Thomas in the army of the Cumberland.

Burned by Molten Copper.

Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 21.—Queen Lopez, a workman at the Copper Queen smelter, was burned to death by molten copper which fell from a swinging pot under which he stood. His clothes were set on fire and his body horribly disfigured by the liquid metal.

New Ships Building.

Ships that will be worth in the aggregate $29,725,000 are now in process of construction at the shipyards along the Delaware river.

Mail Boxes for Rural Routes.

Salem, Jan. 21.—Twenty-five dozen mail boxes required by the government for the rural mail routes, have been received in Salem, and the balance are expected in a few days. They are made of galvanized iron, 18 inches long, six inches wide and six inches high. Each family or person on the route desiring mail by the carrier must put up one of these boxes and pay $1 each for them.
